

My name is Claudia Emerson and I would like to petition to allow XM Radio to continue broadcasting traffic and weather reports. I consider this to be an added service provided by XM Radio which I am voluntarily paying for. Because XM radio is a subscription service, this should not be considered competition for the free local radio stations that I could also continue to listen to. It is my personal freedom of choice that allows me to choose between listening to XM Radio or my local radio station.